Head out of the city for a half day tour on a private bus to visit the famous and scenic mountain of Montserrat. Home to a medieval monastery that is nestled in between natural rock spires high above sea level, a visit to Montserrat is at the same an excursion into nature, and a richly-detailed trip into the past.

Tour Description

Rising up from the low, rolling hills outside of Barcelona, Montserrat, meaning "serrated mountain" is aptly named. Leave the bustle of the city behind on this half-day tour and experience one of the most important and beautiful sites for nature lovers and history fans in all of Catalonia. It may come as a surprise that just one hour away from such a vibrant and frenetic city, this gorgeous site offers rugged nature, stunning mountain views, and an atmosphere of utter peace and calm.
